1. Join us for a 2 day clinic May 30 and 31, 2009 featuring clinician and trainer Cindy McDevitt coming to KC from Florida! This clinic is for all disciplines for all levels from beginner to advanced. Assistant trainer is Adriana Halpern from Liberty MO.

2. Clinic is tailored to each rider's individual ability and needs, and will focus on creating harmony between horse and rider, safety, speed control, collection, innovative ground work, relationship building, respect, troubleshooting and so much more.

Cindy McDevitt is John Lyon's #1 instructor and clinician in the southeast, and was selected as one of a handful of trainers to be part of his Select Certified Program in the 1990's. She was chosen for her intuitiveness and her remarkable ability to connect and get the best performance out of any horse. Cindy is an avid endurance rider, and has also shown in both Western and English Disciplines.

Cost of clinic is $165 per day which includes a full day of instruction, lots of guided and supervised practice, lunch, giveaway prizes, and guest speaker.

Clinic is limited to 8 participants per day.

Hours are 9:00am-4:30pm

$100 deposit is necessary to guarantee a spot. Clinic fills up fast, and is first come first serve.
