This date will be your best opportunity to school over the cross-country jumps before the June Horse Trials! You will have access to jumps of all levels: Starter Nov., Beg. Novice, Novice, Training and Preliminary. We will have the grass mowed around all the jumps and we will provide you with maps of the courses. Additionally, the multi-level water complex will be filled and we have a multi-level bank complex open. We will have hoses hooked up for the horses.

You may sign up and pay on the schooling day at the Dressage Secretary's tent at the Weidman lot.

- You may school each fence as often as needed, but please be considerate of other riders and footing
- ASTM/SEI helmets and approved safety vests are required at all times while schooling
- Please wear your medical armband while schooling
- Please wear your QPEE schooling armband (picked up at registration) while schooling
